Description

Organic Etch Stream is a beautiful representation of free-flowing water. Creatively designed to add movement, texture and dimension to your space. Available in vertical and horizontal orientations, use them separately or weave them into one design. The perfectly imperfect lines impart calm and provide varying height to allow light reflect.

Available in the full 24-color range, choose from complementary natural tones like Linen, Pebble, and Slate, or be brave and make the designs pop with the vibrancy of Sunshine, Ochre or Cobalt.

Lightweight and easy to cut Organic Etch is the perfect acoustic alternative to traditional commercial wallcoverings.
